

Relevant Logic Workshop on April 7th Morning

- 9.00–9.30 Arnon Avron, “The Classical Constraint on Relevant Logics”, Tel-Aviv University.
- 9.30–10.00 John Slaney (and Edward Walker), “The One-variable Pure Implication Fragment of T is Infinite”, Australian National University.
- 10.00–10.30 Tore Ogaard, “Dialethic Paths to Triviality”, University of Oslo.
- 10.30–11.00 COFFEE BREAK
- 11.00–11.30 Graham Priest, “Curry’s Paradox and Sub-structural Proof Theory for Relevant Logic”, City University of New York.
- 11.30–12.00 Zach Weber, “Thither Relevant Arithmetic!”, University of Otago.
- 12.00–12.30 Edwin Mares, “What is Entailment?”, Victoria University of Wellington.
- 12.30–1.00 Ross Brady, “Metavaluations”, La Trobe University.
- 1.00–2.30 LUNCH
- 2.30–3.15 Michael Dunn, “The Third Place is the Charm: Tertiary Accessibility Relations” (Keynote Address), Indiana University.